This matter is before the court on defendant, Roberto Nava's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [37]. Counsel needs additional time to review discovery, file any necessary pretrial motions and meet with defendant to discuss trial strategy and any possible plea offers. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [37] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for both defendants, now set for April 19, 2022, is continued to July 19, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and July 19, 2022 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. If any party desires to object to this order, they shall do so no later than 7-days from the date of this order or they may be deemed to have waived the right to object.

DATED: April 6, 2022

BY THE COURT:

United States Magistrate Judge
